SERBS MAY MAKE ANOTHER STAND

Must Either Do This or Retire to Mountains For Safety

ABSENCE OF ROADS

Austro-German Forces in North and Bulgarians on South Closing in Upon Fugitives.

London, Nov. 20—The position of the Serbian army and the attitude of Greece toward the entente powers are still the outstanding questions of interest in Europe. Reliable information on both situations is so meager that the public is unable to judge what changes, if any, have taken place.

It is thought possible that the Serbians will make a stand on the historic plain of Kossovo, east of the Montenegrin frontier, where over 500 years ago they lost their independence to Turkey. They must either do this or retire in the mountain regions of Montenegro or Albania, where, although they would be near help from the Adriatic, it would be difficult to keep them supplied, owing to the absence of roads.

The Austro-German forces on the north are now within thirty miles of the Mitrovitza-Pristina line of the Serbians, while the Bulgarians in the south are said already to have passed Menastir.

As to the position of Greece, there have been no developments, although a more hopeful feeling prevails in Paris and London since Denys Cochin's visit to King Constantine and the Greek ministers.

There have been lively artillery engagements in Alsace and at some points in the west. In the east the Germans report there is no change in the situation, while Petrograd claims repulses of the Germans on the Vvine and Styr Rivers.

The Italians still are hammering away at the Austrian positions on the Isonzo, but while they are gaining a little from day to day, they have not yet succeeded in the capture of Gorizia, which again has been under a heavy shell fire for several days.

ALL BOW TO AMERICA.

Former Italian Premier Says She More Than Wins Over Great Monetary Powers.

Rome, Nov. 20.—Former Premier Luigi Luzzatti, in an article published yesterday regarding the persistence of the high rate of exchange between Europe and America, despite the big loans contracted by the Entente Allies, in New York, says that "America wins, more than wins." and declares that "all the greatest monetary powers in the world bow to her."

Signor Luzzatti attributes the continuance of the high rate of exchange to the delays and uncertainties in the financial war. He says the Triple Entente has done only now in America what it should have done in August, 1914, and that therefore, the efforts of today must be multiplied.

WOULD PREVENT WARS

First Step in Creation of World Supreme Court Taken

New York, Nov. 20—At a luncheon given at the Bankers' Club here yesterday which was attended by men prominent in public life from all sections of the country, the World's Court League of America was organized by the election of a board of governors, who will later elect officers and perfect the organization.

Dr. John Wesley Hill, who presided at the meeting, explained that the league proposed to organize a court consisting of representatives from each country in the world, which will prevent any such outbreak as the present war in the future.

BAPTIST OF VIRGINIA.

Opening Session of General Association at Clarendon.

The Virginia Baptist Association met in annual convention at the Clarendon Baptist Church, Alexandria county, yesterday morning with several hundred delegates in attendance, including a number from this city. The opening session was devoted largely to the reading of important reports, showing much work had been accomplished along progressive lines by the denomination in this State during the past year.

The report of the committee on cooperation was submitted by B. A Jacobs, Dr. E. R. Gaines, a professor at Richmond College, delivered an earnest address on the subject "Hindrances and Help to Co-Operation," which caused a general discussion.

Rev. William Lockhart Ball, pastor of the Tabernacle Church Richmond, conducted the quiet hour service, following which there was an address, on denominational literature by Rev. C. B. Arendall.

The splendid report of Treasurer B. A. Jones showed a grand total of $234,795.06 raised for all purposes by the Virginia churches during the past year.

Ninety-two years ago the General Baptist Association of Virginia was organized in the Second church at Richmond. At that time, the association covered the territory of Virginia and West Virginia, with perhaps fewer than ten thousand white members. Today 225,000 Baptist occupy that territory, the churches the past year having received by baptism as many members as were represented at the organization of the general assolia tion.

At the first meeting $204,11 1-4 represented the cash in hand. But by faith they employed the missionary evangelists, Rev. J. B. Jeter, and Daniel Witt, at $300.00 per month, and each man paid his own expenses.

One of them had to pay a guide $7 to held him find his way in the wilds of Northwest Virginia. It required men of faith and heroic mould to preach the gospel in the days when sleeping cars and automobiles were unknown.

This year in Virginia alone $260,000 will be reported as raised for Baptist state, home and foreign work, and which does not include contributions for orphange and school enterprises. Several hundred evangelistic missionaries will have been supported in part by the state board of missions.

WILL WAR TO BITTER END

Governor Spry, of Utah, Defies Workmen of the World.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 20—War to the bitter end was declared yesterday by Gov. William Spry against the I. W. W. and other alleged lawless elements in this city and State. The governor's declaration followed immediately after the execution by shooting of Joseph Hillstrom, the I. W. W. poet, for the murder of J. G. Morrison and his son, Arling.

"The fight has just begun," said Gov. Spry. "We are not going to stop until the State is entirely rid of this lawless element that now infests it. Every lawbreaker, every man who defies the law and order, every man who is opposed to law and order—will be driven out of the State."

The governor said that on his desk lay dozens of letters received today specifically threatening to "make you pay severely for the execution of Hillstrom." or even making more specific threats of destruction and death.

WOMAN KILLED BY AUTO.

Steps in Front of Car of Virginian Near North East.

Elkton, Md., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Emma Simpers, aged 51 years, wife of Edward E. Simpers, a farmer of North East, died yestterday at the Union Hospital here from injuries received when she was struck by an automobile driven by Manley O. Simpson, of Front Royal, Virginia.

Mrs. Simpers and her sister were walking on the State road when the machine came up behind them. As the car aproached the women Mr. Simpson blew his horn, and Mrs. Simpers, thinking the car was going to turn into a garage close by, stepped into the road in front of the car, which was running at a moderate speed.

Mr. Simpson gave himself up to Sheriff Morgan, but all the witnesses to the accident assert that Mr. Simpson was not to blame.

300,000 IN ASSAULT

Striving to Open Gateway Into Austria—Contemplated Drives Will Be Very Fierce.

London, Nov. 20—Goritz, the Italian objective in Austria, is in flames, under incessant bombardment.

Reports that 300,000 new Italian troops are to attempt a fresh assault to open the gateway into Austria are current.

Russian artillery is smashing the German lines from Riga to Galicia.

On the western front Anglo-French cannon maintain a continous fire upon certain positions. The shipments of ammunition from England have been stopped, the interpretation being that more than a sufficient supply has already reached the front for another "drive."

Berlin, Nov. 20—Goritz is burning in many places today. The Italians have thrown 3,000 shells int othe town Many of the inhabitants have been killed. The property damage is enormous.

From a military standpoint, however, the Italians have accomplished little. The Austrians firmly hold all their original positions, and are repulsing attack after attack.

The bridge head in particular has been under an incessant bombardment many days. Guns of every caliber have been directed against it.

The increased intensity of the Goritz attack has been an incident to a renewed Italian assault all along the Isonzo line. Everywhere the Austrians are holding their own.

Unofficial reports say that the Italians are rushing 300,000 men to make a determined effort to break through the Austrian line.

FINED FOR KISSING

Crutchfield Thought Poor Way of Showing Friendship for Woman's Husband

Police Justice Crutchfield, of Richmond, yesterday imposed a fine of $10 on both Mrs. M. J. Blair and J. R Rowland when they were arraigned before him on the charge of being disorderly in Monroe Park.

According to Patrolman Galbraith and Parkkeeper Moore, Rowland and the woman were spooning near the keeper's house Thursday afternoon when they arrested them.

Galbraith was sure he saw Rowland kissing the woman, and so was Moore. Superintendent Cohn, of the City Street Cleaning Department, pleaded with the court in behalf of the pair. He said that Rowland was one of his men and enjoyed a good reputation. He also stated that Rowland was the best friend of Mrs. Blair's husband.

"Poor way to show it," interrupted Crutchfield, "by taking his wife to a park and kissing her."

Rowland who is a cripple, entered a general denial of the charge in a brief statement to court. Mrs. Blair rather short and stout, also denied that she had acted in an improper manner.

Passports to Austrian and German cardinals will be issued by the Italian government, enabling them to attend the consistory at the Vatican in December. The decision reached by the council of ministers, announced yesterday, was regarded generally as another straw blowing in the direction of possible peace negotiations. For refusing safe conduct to German members of the Sacred College there was not technical reason, Germany and Italy being nominally in amicable relations. But that permission would be granted the Austrians to visit Rome was not expected. The inference drawn is that the ministers know of peace plans in the Vatican.

PANIC IN MONASTIR.

Exciting Scenes During the Great Bulgarian Drive of the Serbians This Week.

London, Nov. 20.—Describing the Serbian retirement from Babuna Pass the Saloniki correspondent of the Chronicle says:

"Making the most of natural advantages of position the Serbians repeatedly drove back the Bulgarians. Even Bulgar howitzers were unable to expel the heroic defenders and success was achieved only by an attack in front while the cunning turning movement on the Serbian left was in progress.

"Owing to the frontal attack the Serbs were unable to detach men to meet the force enveloping their left. That force had to be sent across the mountains in single file over a goat track several kilometers from the Serbian left. The Bulgars took up a position until the whole force had defiled through the narrow gorges

"During night before last evacuation of the Babuna line was executed without loss and without the Bulgarians attempting to disturb the operations. The artillery and all equipment of the little force were saved, not one man being taken prisoner. It is estimated that the Bulgarian losses in the Babuna fighting were 5,000 or more than the total Serbian force opposing them.

"Abandonment of the position meant the evacuation of Prilep, whence most of the inhabitants already had fled. Two Bulgar cavalry regiments entered the town toward nightfall. This Bulgarian advance drove the population of the district into Monastir, where a wild panic broke out, not from fear of the immediate arrival of the Bulgarians, but because of apprehension that Komitajis (irregulars) already in the town would rise. The railroad station was crowded all day with fugitives laden with bundles waiting for trains. A large number was obliged to leave by roads."

The Serbian Army is expected to retreat towards Albania. It is estimated there are 50,000 Serbs in the Monastir region opposed to more than 80,000 Bulgars.

GERMAN LINES GETTING THIN

Two Men With Machine Guns Left To Defend Position

Petrograd, No. 20—Russian military observers are finding frequent indications that the German lines on this front are growing increasingly thin. These are furnished by reports from the fighting lines, notably from the sector northeast of Riga. As an instance, it is stated that in capturing the passage between two marshes the Russians found the sole defenders of the position to be two Germans with machine guns.

High Winds Along Coast—Reaches a Velocity of 72 Miles an Hour at New York.

Washington, Nov. 20—William J. Flynn, chief of the Federal Secret Service has been withdrawn as the the official in charge of the investigation of bombplots and other conspiracies, and the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice of which A. Bruce Bielaski is chief, has been placed in complete control.

The clash in jurisdiction which brought about friction in the Cabinet was occasioned by the activity of Chief Flynn in the arrest of Robert Fay and others at New York and complaints of the Department of Justice that Flynn had exceeded his authority, brought Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Attorney General Gregory to reach an agreement as to the separate jurisdictions of the two Government sleuthing agencies.

A joint statement was issued last night by McAdoo and Gregory announced that Department of Justice agents in future will direct and carry on investigations into conspiracies to violate neutrality and all crimes involving bomb plots, ship-burning and munitions factory explosions.

This statement was issued, the two cabinet officers explained. "In view of the widespread statements to the effect that the secret service of the Treasury Department had been put in charge of the investigations."

In the instructions to the Secret Service of the Treasury." the statement says. "are to turn over promptly to the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice any data developed by the former which will assist the latter in carrying out such investigations."

WILSON OBJECTS TO SONG.

White House Romance Had Been Used as a Basis.

New York, Nov. 20.—A Brooklyn song writer, Michael J. F. Fitzgerald, who wrote a song, "Pretty Little Indian Maid," using the White House romance as a basis, has received from Secretary Tumulty, a request that the song be not published, While the name of Mrs. Galt, the President's fiancee, is not mentioned, the reference in the song is unmistakable, because of the fact that Mrs. Galt is descended from Pocahontas, and because the Indian name for the President of the United States is "The Big White Chief."

Mr. Fitzgerald had entered into negotiations with his publishers, but they refused to publish the song without the consent of the President.

TO SAVE CORNERSTONES

Falls Church Chapter, D. A. R. Raise Funds to Protect Marker

The Falls Church Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, gave a tea at the residence of Mrs. Formad Regent of the Chapter at East Falls Church, on Friday afternoon for the purpose of raising sufficient money to protect the boundary stones of Alexandria County (which was originally a portion of the District of Columbia)

Originally there were 14 of these intermediate stones in Virginia. One of them has already been protected, while one is missing, four are broken and eight are in good condition.

The westerly corner stone is situated upon the property of Col. J. C. De Putron near West Falls Chudch. A large piece of this stone appears to have been sliced off and unfortunately it can not be found. This stone is said to have been located by Major Andrew Ellicott under the personal direction of President Washington. Major Ellicott was one of the engineers who assisted L'Enfant in laying out the "Federal Grounds," as the District of Columbia was then known.

The inscriptions on the stone are quite legible, and are on the side towards Alexandria county, "Jurisdiction of the U. S.;" on one of the remaining sides, "No. 10, 1791; on an' other side is the magnetic variation, while the sliced off portion contained the word "Virginia" according to records. These stones are Virginia standstone of this locality and are beginning to show signs of serious deterioration.

It is planned to apply to these stones a chemical preservative, like that used on the Obelisk in Central Park, New York City, and also to embed them in a concrete foundation a yard square with an ornamental iron fence about five feet high surrounding them.

A stone to mark the old boundary of Alexandria city is still to be seen in the intersection of Jefferson and Franklin streets. Up to th beginning of the civil war this stone was the site of Battery Rodgers, but it was removed when the fort was built.

KITCHENER AT SALONIKI

Allies Send Ultimatum to Greek Government

Berlin, Nov. 20—Dispatches to the Frankfurter Zeitung from Constantinople state that Earl Kitchener will arrive at Saloniki today and that in Greek circles it is believed that important changes will take place in consequence.

The Gendarmes Corps made up chiefly of Cretans, stationed now in Greece, is openly agitating in favor of former premier Venizelos.

The British already consider Saloniki as English territory. They have been heard to say that Greece must either draw the sword voluntarily or be forced to do it. The overthrow of the dynasty is hinted at. In Athens serious measures are being considered.

The Anglo-French forces are making large requisitions in Saloniki without the least regard for the Greek authorities.

London, Nov. 20—The Greek government has ordered all Greek merchants vessels to leave French and Italian ports immediately, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

Copenhagen, Nov. 20—German papers state that the allies have sent an ultimatum to Greece.

FRICTION IN CABINET

Alleged Deposed Official Exceeded His Authority in Arresting Fay and Others.

Washington, Nov. 20. — The two storms which have moved toward each other from the South Atlantic coast and the Ohio Valley, formed a junction over Western New York and Ontario. High winds continue along the seaboard from Norfolk to Eastport and over the Great Lakes.

Newport News, Va. Nov. 20.— A terrific northwest gale yesterday afternoon and last night played havoc with teleghaph and telephone communication from this city, damages on of small craft on the Chesapeake Bay and Hampton Roads and caused larger craft to seek shelter whenever practicable.

Estimates place the damage anywhere from hundreds to thousands of dollars. Ferryboats from here to near-by cities had great difficulty making their runs, and all are behind time. Small piers and breakwaters have been practically demolished, in some instances, by the force of the wind and waves.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 20.—Several packet and fishing vessels, each carrying from twelve to twenty persons, were caught in the violent storm of the past few days, and had not been reported last night. Grave fears are felt for their safety.

New York, Nov. 20.— Gales, accompanied by rain, swept over New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the New England States yesterday, seriously interferring with telegraphic communication in many places, and endangering shipping along coast. A wind velocity of seventy-two miles was recorded in New York.

Conditions in these States, termed "the most unusual in many years" by the Weather Bureau, were created by a heavy storm moving in a northwesterly direction up the coast, and another storm, of almost equal intensitt, moving east and slightly north from the Ohio Valley, The Weather Bureau thought the 2 storms would meet over the New England States or the Great Lake.

Heavy gales raged over the Atlantic from Jacksonville to Eastport, Me.,

Atlanta, Ga. Nov. 20.—Wire communication, with points in South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, was seriously interrupted by the storm Thursday. No property damage was reported.

Bristol, Va. Nov. 20.—Following a rain and hailstorm here yesterday afternoon, snow fell this evening, manteling the ground temporarily.

Lynchburg, Va. Nov. 20.—A severe electric storm occurred here yesterday afternoon, and a hailstorm visited the city during the forenoon.

WOULD INCLUDE CHINA

Celestial Kingdom May Enter Alliance Against Germany

Efforts are being made by Great Britain, France and Russia to include China in the membership of the entente now aligned against the Germanic powers. Disclosure of this fact directed the attention of official Washington yesterday to a complicated situation in the Far East, the seriousness of which had not hitherto been realized.

It became known that in order to insure friendly relations between Japan and China, conversations and exchanges had been proceeding in Peking and the European capitals looking to the formal entrance of China on an equal footing with Japan into the allianse that now includes Great Britain, France, Russia, Italy, Japan and Serbia.

Military participation by China in the war would not be expected, but the political necessity of adding China to the allies is looked upon by them as of vast importance.

Body of Charles Southard Found Beside His Boat at Lynnhaven Inlet

Charles D. Southard, a well-known fisherman and oysterman, was drowned at Lynnhaven Inlet Wednesday morning. He had been in declining health for several months.

A message from Lynnhaven to Mrs. Will S. Crocker, of Norfolk, a niece of Mr. Southard, was received by the Western Union Telegraph Company, and a messenger boy, was sent to deliver the message. Mrs. Crocker was not at home, but the boy located her at the Crosman theatre. When the message was delivered to her, Mrs. Crocker fainted and fell into the arms of the messenger.

That the United States should take steps toward an increase of defense plans will be debated tonight at the second meeting of the Alexandria High School Literary Society for the 1915-16 session. This question being one of the foremost issues facing the administration and the coming Congress it will doubtless be most interesting and one that will bring a lot of argument at the session tonight The usual three declamations that were part of the program of the meetings last year will also be delivered tonight.

ANOTHER RIVER STEAMER.

Steamer Majestic to be Brought From New York to the Potomac.

To bring the steamer Majestic from New York to Washington, Capt. R. B. Reed, Capt, James Baker and Engineer Joe Nash have gone to that city for the Potomac and Chesapeake Steamboat Company. C. H. St. Johns, general manager of the company, and G. R. Smith, its chief engineer, are also in New York, and may return on the steamer, which is expected to arrive today.

The Majestic was purchased about six weeks ago for service on the route out of Washington, Alexandria, to Nomini and Lower Machodoc creeks tributaries of the Potomac. She had been used for day service in the vicinity of New York, and has no staterooms. It was intended to make this addition at New York, bu owin gto the crowded condition of the shipyards there it has been determinell to bring the steamer to Washington without the rooms, and it is probable they will be placed on her by Washington shipwrights.

The Majestic is similar in build to the steamer Charles Macalester, on the Mount Vernon route, but is somewhat larger, No date has been set for her to go into commission, but she will be in service within the next few days.

THE POPE IN THIS WAR.

A strange development of war politics in Europe is the Bavarian proposition to restore the temporal sovereignty of the Pope, as a penalty of course, to be inflicted by victorious Germany upon the kingdom of Italy for joining the entente allies. The present war has in many respects reversed the tendency of European history. It has increased the authority of monarchs and diminished that of the people. It has converted Germany into an autocracy. It has ended constitutionalism, apparently, in Bulgaria and Greece. It has silenced parliamentary opposition in England and France, and thrown a veil of slumber over home rule in Ireland. Even Switzerland feels the grip of militarism on the throat of its ancient democracy. Is this backward drift to take Italy back to 1860, and restore to the Pope his territorial dominions? is the query now being propounded.

The Boston Transcript says:

We may be sure that such a proposition would meet with favor in Austria and Bavaria, and perhaps in Prussia as well. If it became possible to the Austro-Germans, as the result of a complete victory over the entente powers, to destroy the Italian kingdom, they would undoubtedly destroy it. As the fruit of such a victory, Venelia and even Lombardy might be given back to Austria, and the States of the Church be constituted. But that such a chimercial scheme should be seriously discussed in the Bavarian Diet is an indication of the political madness of the Germans. To reverse the course of history in such a manner would be impossible, though the strongest political combination in Europe should attempt it. Moreover, there will be no "papal conspiracy" to effect this end.

[illegible] number over home rule in Ireland. Even Switzerland feels the grip of militarism on the throat of its ancient democracy. Is this backward drift to take Italy back to 1860, and restore to the Pope his territorial dominions? is the query now being propounded.

The Boston Transcript says:

We may be sure that such a proposition would meet with favor in Austria and Bavaria, and perhaps in Prussia as well. If it became possible to the Austro-Germans, as the result of a complete victory over the entente powers, to destroy the Italian kingdom, they would undoubtedly destroy it. As the fruit of such a victory, Venelia and even Lombardy might be given back to Austria, and the States of the Church be constituted. Moreover, there will be no "papal conspiracy" to effect this end.

[illegible] the Bavarian [illegible] his roots on the [illegible]

[illegible] the church cannot take sides. It has no better servants than many men who are fighting on the side of the entente. This spirit of the church broods over French and Belgian battle flags as well as over those of Austria and Bavaria. As Abbe Dimnet has shown, there has been a great revival of the religious spirit in France as a result of the war. Is the church likely to imperil that hopeful revival by taking sides against France? Could the Church abandon its mission as the impartial comforter and inspirer of all in order to follow the will-o'-the-wisp of a restoration of the Papal States? It is not at all likely, and those who say that it will do so are guilty of a very great presumption. They do not understand the function of the Catholic Church in the world.

By the entrance into the war on the side of the entente powers, the Italian showed that they had the courage of their national hopes. Defeat for them might, indeed, mean humiliation and even dismemberment. They entered the war bravely and whole-heartedly nevertheless, having an eye to the independent position of Italy on the Adriatic and in the Mediterranean. The entire population, clerical and secular, joined in support of the kingdom. The Roman and Neapolitan nobility, to a great extent papal in sentiment, sent their sons to fight for Italy. The whole population is loyal to the nation. The church cannot fail to be affected by this phenomenon. It will not take sides against Italy.

NO SIGNS OF PEACE.

The dreary winter has made its advent, and the Frost King is looking down upon trenches, blackened chimneys, shivering women and children suffering for the necessaries of life and groans of the wounded and dying in camps and hospitals. Frigid winds are playing mournful dirges around humble habitations from which loved ones went over a year ago never to return. While some are dreaming of peace, others in positions to steady the situation see none in sight. The men in the different war zones realise that they are to spend another winter shivering on battle fields and in trenches, while their blood may be destined to dye the beautiful snow.

Premier Asquith says the European war is to go on until German militarism is destroyed and all the countries despoiled by German arms are restored and indemnified. Another high British authority, Right Honorable C. F. G. Masterman, declares there can be no peace until Belgium is restored to complete independence, with an indemnity large enough to rebuild her ruined cities; that France shall receive Alsace-Lorraine and the Rhine shall be the boundary line; Denmark shall get back Schelswig, which is purely Danish,; Poland shall be given to the Czar, to be used as he sees fit; Italy is to have Trentino; Serbia will be restored and given a heavy indemnity; the German fleet shall be sunk or divided up among the allies and the army completely disbanded.

The very mention of these terms says the Ohio State Journal shows how far the end of the war is. Germany's terms are just as rigorous the other way, according to these terms, the end of the war is very far off. Certainly it will not come next year, unless both sides yield about all they claim and end the conflict just where they started out, with no gain for either side and an accumulation of horrors for both sides. It all looks like a fight to the finish and there will be nothing left to start anew with.

SILLY AND UNTRUE.

An American newspaper has made the discovery that "the splendid families from which our great men have come, families which has provided our Presidents, are disappearing."

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot in commenting upon the discovery says.

What rot that is! Washington had no illustrious ancestry, was neither the scion nor the founder of a "splendid family;" his fame was born and died with him. Jefferson sprang from plain and poor, but honest folk, and in his rise had no adventitious help from birth or fortune. Jackson was of humble paternity, had no family tree, was born in a cabin amid squalid surroundings; and he, too, of his race was "the beginning and the end." In a long succession of Presidents only the Adamses of Massachuetts and Tyler and Harrison of Virginia could with any semblance of verity be said to have had "blood and culture" behind them. Fillmore and Pierce bore names which had no place in past history. Lincoln sprang from an humble peasant line whose roots are not [illegible] generations back of his birth and the legitimacy of that [illegible] questioned. Andrew Johnson [illegible] in that he [illegible] and marriage in [illegible] from a bench [illegible] to the White [illegible] were certificates even in the [illegible] term. Neither [illegible] the products [illegible] could boast [illegible] strictus pedi- [illegible] by a snobbish [illegible] have been "the [illegible] occupied the [illegible] Buchanan." [illegible] red no honor [illegible] achievements of those from [illegible] be inherited it. In fact, the [illegible] cy of the United States is more than aught else a confirmation of the poet's pithy maxim:

"Honor and fame from no condition rise;
Act well your part, there all the honor lies."

TOO MUCH ORGANIZATION.

In the opinion of Bishop Candler, as expressed yesterday at the conference in Norfolk, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has reached the point when it has too much organization. "Organization is good in itself," he said, "but it is a very subordinate power in the kingdom of Heaven. We have on entirely too much harness. When I go into some Methodist churches I tread with the same care that I do when I go into an electric power-house, for fear I may step on something I should not, the trouble being that it is charged. I wish we could get back to the old simple days in the church."

Over thirty years ago a proposition was made by a man in New York to organize a new church—a church for the humbler classes especially. One of the planks in this platform was that there was too much organization in the church and too little actual work to save souls.

The action was brought against Secretary McAdoo.

After a four days' battle the Italians have succeeded in clearing the Aceua valley of their campaign against Gorizia. Gorizia, itself, is nothing but a mass of smoking ruins, from the Italian bombardment, it is reported. The fighting in the valley and on the heights northwest of Gorizia has been practically uninterrupted for a week. It has been waged night and day, with the Italian troops slowly but steadily advancing. Only a few of the Austrian soldiers who participated in the battle escaped.

A complete agreement between England and France on all military and diplomatic matters has been established at the joint meeting of the Anglo-French war boards in Paris. At a full meeting of the British cabinet yesterday Premier Asquith made a report upon the conference and told his colleagues of the progress made toward absolute unification in carrying on the war. It is understood that England and France have solemnly pledged themselves to save Serbia at any cost.

If eligible single men do not volunteer they will be brought in by compulsion. Lord Derby states this in a letter to Premier Asquith, in reply to which the premier says the statement "correctly expresses the intentions of the government." This pledge removes all doubt as to uncertainty of the last few days and absolutely commits the government to conscription unless all eligible men—that is exclusive of ammunition workers and others engaged in work necessary for the country—have not enlisted by December 11.

Mrs. Norman Galt may have whatever Paris gown she may wish, and for nothing, too, if she will accept them direct from a Paris dressmakers' syndicate, but neither for love nor money can she have them through a German agent. This was the ultimatum delivered by President Poiret, of the syndicate. The agent with whom the dressmakers refuse to deal is said to be a New Yorker named Kurzmann, who, Poiret says, is commissioned to buy gowns for President Wilson's fiancee. The syndicate's officers refused to permit delivery of gowns to him, because they say his origin is German.

The first hunting fatality of the season, at Danville, occured Thursday afternoon when Frederick Howard, a 14 year old boy, was shot and almost instantly killed by Howard Saunders, his 15 year old companion. SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

I never found anything that gave me so much relief whenever I have had that tired feeling across my kidneys. I always recommend Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I have an opportunity, for I know they can't be beat."

ANCONA HAD NO WARNING

First Shell Struck Wireless Italy's Official Report Says

Naples, Nov. 20—The official report of the investigation into the sinking of the Italian steamship Ancona by a submarine off the Tunisian coast on November 7, has been sent to Thomas Nelson Page, the American Ambassador at Rome. The investigation reached the conclusion that the submarine fired a shell against the wireless apparatus aboard the Ancona without any warning. The captain brought the vessel immediately to a halt.

The submarine, having hoisted the Austrian flag, the investigators found, the Ancona was about to hoist the Italian ensign, but the flag reached only half way up the mast when the submarine launched a torpedo which struck the steamer amidships.

The captain of the Ancona, the official account says, ordered the lifeboats lowered, but while this was being done the submarine continued firing against the steamer's boats. Some of the boats were pierced by shots, obliging the survivors to use their clothes to stop up the holes. In the meanwhile, it is alleged, those on board the submarine jeered at their victims.

Washington, Nov. 20—Whether this Government protests to Austria on the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona is expected to be decided by the President and his Cabinet at their meeting Tuesday. Secretary of State Lansing informed the President and his other advisers that this Government still is without necessary information upon which action can be taken. The Secretary expects a detailed report from Ambassador Penfield at Vienna before Tuesday. This report was requested in addition to Austria's official statement on the disaster.

CASE OF BOY-ED

Concessions of Officials of Steamship Line Unsatifsactory.

New York, Nov. 20—Desperate efforts are being made to prevent the alleged activities outside of his diplomatic mission in this country of Capt. Boy-Ed, naval attache of the German Embassy.

The question will arise at the trial, beginning next Monday, of Hamburg-American Line officials. They are indicted for conspiracy in connection with alleged violators of United States maritime laws.

United States District Attorney Marshall admitted last night that lawyers for the four steamship officials have filed with the governor these concessions:

First-Capt. Boy-Ed was cognizant of the plan to coal and provision German commerce raiders in the North and South Atlantic.

Second—The money for the purchase of four prospective tenders came from Germany but not from the imperial German government.

The concessions do not satisfy the government. The government, it is said, will assert that Boy-Ed actually directed the purchase of the steamships Berwind, Lorenz, Fram and Sommerstad.

It was also learned today that an indictment will be returned against one of the foreign consular representatives most prominently mentioned in Goricar revelations. That will be as soon as Washington gives the word. This can be stated on the highest authority.

"The Goricar charges have been in the government's possession in other forms for weeks," said a high United States official today. "We have barrels of evidence. Goricar will be valuable as a corroborating witness.

"More than a score of the commercial agents of foreign powers can be indicted upon this evidence. They will be indicted if President Wilson considers it expedient."

"We can save you money"

This advertising expression undoubtedly dates back to the beginning of barter and sale, and as a talking point is hard to beat.

The only trouble about its use is that some people are impetuous and want to see the saving quick.

So far as tires are concerned, and if it is the immediate dollar right in hand that is wanted, you can beat Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires for a quick saving at the start.

BUT if it is the big saving that comes from accumulated mileage that's most inviting we can truly save you money on Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires.
